

Lolo Community Council “Meet the Candidates Session”

October 5, 2010 Meeting Minutes

(Final approved copy)

“Meet the Candidates Session”

Sue Hadnot, Chairperson, welcomed the candidates and thanked them for their attendance at the meeting. The candidates attending were as follows:

For Missoula County Sheriff:

Brad Giffin, Democrat, Carl Ibsen, Independent and Nicholas Lisi, Republican

For Montana House of Representatives:

House District 100

Willis Curdy- Democrat candidate and “Champ” Edmonds-Republican candidate

House District 91

Tim Furey-Democrat candidate and David “Doc” Moore-Republican candidate

Each candidate was given 5 minutes to address those in attendance regarding their qualifications and their platform, and, in general, the reasons they felt that they were deserving of their vote.

A Q&A was initiated with questions submitted by those in attendance drawn at random. A total of 2 questions directed toward each office (Sheriff and House representative) were asked and each candidate was given an opportunity to respond. The four council members present also asked one question and the candidates were asked to respond.

In summary, the session was deemed successful judging from community participation and the information that was presented. Sue thanked the candidates again and also thanked the audience for their participation and attendance. The session was concluded at 8:50 and the attendees were offered an opportunity to engage the candidates one-on-one.
